All men who will be serving in morning worship service will meet in the Teen Classroom at 8:55 a.m. A prayer will be offered up at that time and then the men will form a procession down the middle aisle. The formal presentation and procedure will hopefully remind everyone that we are there for the specific purpose of worship and bring to the forefront of our minds the respect that should be given during the worship service.

"Put on the full armor of God,
so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes."

Ephesians 6:11
